

ALEXANDER HUFFMAN

Producer

I am a student studying Film Production at the University of Salford. I am passionate about making movies happen. I have current experience in the industry as a runner, and love gaining insight into how everything works. I cannot wait to begin my adventure into the industry, as a hardworking and determined individual.

Experience

Production Runner

Chief Productions

September 2024- September 2024

As a production runner for Chief I was involved with ensuring that all members of the crew were looked after, as well as retrieving set props for the set. I learnt a lot in this experience about being on a set, and the hierarchy of the crew.

Front of House

JW Lees Brewery

September 2024 - Ongoing

As a Front of House employee, I have years of experience in customer service and this job has still taught me that you can always learn something new. I handle money, drinks, and people which has taught me patience and great social skills.

Producer

Student Film

Jan 2017 - Dec 2019

I produced a student film named Fight YOUR Fight, and I gained very useful knowledge of what to do as a producer, and introduced me to my passion of making films happen the way they are intended on looking.

I authorise you to hold this sensitive and personal detail about myself, for the purposes of recruitment and potential employability.
